Children's Bureau Clambake Digs Up Funds for Child Abuse Prevention

Children's Bureau Clambake steamed up funds for the agency's child abuse prevention programs on May 30 at Oak Creek Golf Club in Irvine. More than 200 guests attended the popular charity event featuring inspired cuisine, dancing under the stars with the Dwight Kennedy Band, live and silent auctions, heads and tails game and other clam-filled surprises. The event chair was Lori Irving of QBE and honorees were The Crean Foundation, The Capital Group Companies and Lisa Fujimoto.
